

Cherry Orchard Nature Reserve

List of British native wild flower species growing in the nature reserve.

The annual meadow is usually cleared and sown annually in the autumn in situ. The species of seeds sown is a cornfield mix and consists of

Common poppy

Corn chamomile

Corn cockle

Corn marigold

Cornflower

The plants in the perennial meadow and elsewhere are mostly raised from seed, grown on as plug plants and then transplanted. These are

Betony

Bird's foot trefoil

Bryony

Bugle

Bulbous buttercup

Chicory

Common Knapweed

Common toadflax

Common vetch

Cow parsley

Cowslip

Dame's violet

Devil's bit scabious

Early purple orchid

Field forget-me-not

Field scabious

Grass vetchling

Great mullein

Greater burdock

Greater knapweed

Greater stitchwort
Hedge woundwort
Meadow buttercup
Meadow clary
Meadow crane's-bill
Moschatel
Musk mallow
Nettle leaved bellflower
Oxeye daisy
Primrose
Ramsons
Red campion
Red dead nettle
Restharrow
Salsify
Scarlet pimpernel
Selfheal
Small scabious
Spiny restharrow
Square stemmed St John's-wort
Stinking hellebore
Stinking iris
Tormentil
Traveller's joy
Tuberous thistle
Tufted vetch
Viper's bugloss
White dead nettle
Wild basil
Wild carrot Wood sorrel
Wild teasel

Wood avens

Yarrow

Yellow horned poppy

Yellow pimpernel

The following native bulbs have been planted

Snake's head fritillary

Snowdrop

Wild daffodil

Wild tulip

Within a woody glade foxgloves self sow

In the pond and its margins the following grow

Common watercrowfoot

Lesser bulrush

Lesser burr-reed

Marsh marigold

Water soldiers

Yellow iris

Oxygenators

Curled pondweed

Hornwort

Damp area around pond

Dropwort

Fleabane

Greater burnet

Hemp agrimony

Meadowsweet

Purple loosestrife

Ragged robin

Tansy

Water avens

Within the spring meadow are planted

Cowslip

Primrose

To be planted within the chalk meadow area

Bee orchid

Bladder campion

Kidney vetch

Pyramidal orchid

Small scabious

Tree mallow

Yellow horned Poppy

Trees, shrubs and climbers

Ash

Blackthorn

Bryony

Cherry

Dog Rose

Dogwood

Field maple

Gorse

Guelder Rose

Hawthorn

Hazel

Holly

Honeysuckle

Oak

Plum

Privet

Rowan

Silver birch

Spindle

Traveller's joy

Wayfaring tree

Wild crab apple

Wild hop

Wild pear

Yew